R.A.D.D. LLC
Participant Code of Conduct

R.A.D.D. LLC prides itself in sponsoring high quality recreational activities for children and adults with disabilities. The primary purpose of this code of conduct is to establish a high standard of participant behavior, which will ensure the safety and well-being of all participants involved in recreational activities. We do not utilize restrictive measures or restraints. We also do not serve individuals that require Behavior Support plans. All participants are expected to abide by the Participant Code of Conduct as established by R.A.D.D. LLC. Participants should be reminded that participation in R.A.D.D. LLC Activities is a privilege, not a right, and that the Agency and owner, Denise Wetzel has the authority to make immediate accommodations until final decisions can be made. As participants of R.A.D.D. LLC, each participant agrees to adhere to the following behavior statements:

- I will use respectful communication with staff, volunteers, and other participants.
- I will act in ways that bring respect to me, my staff, and fellow participants.
- I will not use bad language.
- I will not swear or insult other people.
- I will not fight with other participants, volunteers or staff.
- I will listen to my staff and ask questions when I do not understand.
- I will not make inappropriate or unwanted physical, verbal or sexual advances on others.
- I will not steal another participant, volunteer, or staff's property.
- I will not bring weapons or items that look like weapons (knives, water guns, etc.) to any R.A.D.D. LLC activities.
